CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
Washington 25, D. C.

22 August 1949

NOTICE TO ALL NAVAL RESERVE PERSONNEL ON DUTY WITH CIA

SUBJECT: Naval Reserve Unit

Quoted below is extract from reply received from the Navy Department to the request of the Director of Central Intelligence for authorization to form a Naval Reserve Unit within CIA:

"It is believed the existing Naval Reserve Program offers an opportunity for all Naval Reserve civilian employees of the Central Intelligence Agency to participate in unit training if they so desire. The Commandant, Potomac River Naval Command has established a large variety of units, both Organized and Volunteer, which are open to all Naval Reserve personnel residing in the Washington area.

"In view of the above, approval is not given for the formation of the proposed unit and it is urged that prospective members of the proposed unit be advised to avail themselves of the existing opportunities to participate in the Naval Reserve Program."

FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE:

[Redacted Signature]

Captain, USN //
Executive
